WEEKLY PRAYER Lord Jesus, I come to You fully aware and admitting that I am a 'poor, miserable, sinner, unworthy, and unclean.' However, in Your blood and holiness, granted to me by the power of the Holy Spirit, I am now holy and clean before an Almighty God Who demands perfection. Thank You for my baptism, where I have been washed and cleansed in the water and The Word. Thank You for Your words of absolution and forgiveness pronounced to me today: Your Words of holiness, shared with me, through the words of the called and ordained pastor who stands before me as a fellow, forgiven sinner. I also thank You this day for offering to me Your body and blood, to eat and drink, a meal of holiness and forgiveness that is a gift from You alone. I am Your forgiven child! Lead me to share Your holiness and forgiveness with others around me. Amen.

HEARTS FOR JESUS This year the Hearts for Jesus project is

"Helping Hands Eastern European Ministries." We will be joining schools and churches across the North Wisconsin District to collect enough offerings for care packages to poor families in Radomir and Plovdiv, Bulgaria, and Mykolaiv, Ukraine (just east of Odessa, Ukraine). Packages will include a Children's Bible, nativity stickers and other Christian materials. They have dubbed the video Little Shepherd into Bulgarian and will include that in one of the packages for Bulgarian families. They will also include devotions and Lutheran brochures (in the local language) in the packages. If they have enough money, they will extend the project to Bucharest, Romania where they recently began working with an LCMS-affiliated congregation. Please join the Sunday School in this project by placing your donations in the container in the narthex. Thank you!
